PRIVATE GUARDIANS FUND UMBRELLA TRUST

What is the Private Guardians Fund Umbrella Trust?

We offer a safe and reliable way for your beneficiaries to receive the benefit from your life policy; the fund is a better option for financial stability for all beneficiaries under the age of 18.

How The Private Guardians Fund Umbrella Trust benefits you:

Choosing the Private Guardians Fund Umbrella Trust is optional.

Life policies pay out in different ways. At a minimal administration fee deducted from the benefit payable, you can choose to elect the Private Guardians Fund Umbrella Trust to protect the funds payable to minor dependents or nominated persons with mental or physical disabilities.

You nominate your dependants as beneficiaries of your policy.

Beneficiaries are generally those individuals who are most significantly impacted by your passing, such as your children or any persons dependent on your income. It is essential to ensure that the funds designated to your nominated beneficiaries are protected through a trust, such as the Private Guardians Fund Umbrella Trust, which will ensure the well-being of your dependents.

The Private Guardians Fund Umbrella Trust will fulfil your wishes.

The Private Guardians Fund Umbrella Trust is a legal, unbiased entity that takes care of your payout and ensures that the beneficiaries are looked after. It is an independently administered trust that is legally bound to carry out the instructions set out by you.

Your beneficiaries receive a selected payout amount per month.

The Trust ensures that your beneficiaries receive a monthly payment for long-term financial stability subject to the trustees' careful consideration of the welfare and best interests of the beneficiaries.

Your beneficiaries are taken care of financially after your death.

Without an appropriate trust, the benefit payable to your minor beneficiaries might be paid to the Government's Guardian Fund administered by the Master's Office. To ensure you stay in control, nominating the Private Guardians Fund Umbrella Trust will give you that extra peace of mind for you and your loved ones.
